

Madison's Iconic Carnegie Library Building

The Good News:

The Madison Historical Society, which has been in existence for 44 years, now has a permanent home at 126 W. Main Street. This was the former Madison Carnegie Library, built in 1918.

The Bad News:

Our roof is leaking!

More Good News:

An anonymous donor has pledged $20,000 in matching funds to repair and replace our roof. We have until December 1, 2022 to match this very generous offer.

Your Madison Historical Society is open to the public; there is no charge to visit the museum. We are a 501(c) 3 and are registered with the State of Ohio as a nonprofit. Your gift is tax deductible and will go solely for roof repair and will be acknowledged. Please specify "roof" with your donation.

You may donate on our website; www.madisonohiohistoricalsociety.org

Or by check to; Madison Historical Society, P.O. Box 515, Madison, OH 44057

THANK YOU !
